

POLO PLAYERS ARE READY CHAMPIONSHIPS TO BE AT NARRAGANSETT.

Tournament Schedule Begins at Country Club of Westchester—New Rules to Prevent Rough Tactics—Referee Has Increased Powers on Field of Play.

Polo will have an interest to American followers of the game in Great Britain this season because the Meadow Brook Club has challenged for the international cup, with the sanction of the American Polo Association, and the team will also join in the tournaments near London. It is a foregone conclusion for the cup, perhaps, for the team will be opposed to the picked men and ponies of the United Kingdom, but in the tournaments the Americans will have the best of sport and their opponents at Hurlingham, Epsom, and Roehampton, besides the home players, will be teams from Spain, France, Hungary and the Argentine Republic, for no other sport is so really cosmopolitan as polo.

H. P. Whitney, who captains the team, is very familiar with the field, for he has gone abroad for some seasons for the game and has paid close attention to the polo. This year he has a racing stable in England and his party will enjoy a variety of sports. The others of the team, J. M. Waterbury, Jr.; L. Waterbury and Devereux Milburn have all played the game at Hurlingham and understand the careful English polo as well as they do the more reckless American method of offside play.

What substitutes Capt. Whitney may call upon is not known as yet. A fast string of ponies has been on the other side for two years, and the pick of American bred stock and a couple of thoroughbred ponies Capt. Whitney has been using as trial horses, bought originally in England.

International polo has a short history, although it includes twenty years. In 1886 a Hurlingham team, made up of John Watson, Capt. Thomas Hone, Hon. T. R. Lawley and Capt. Malcolm Little, visited Newport. A cup had been put up by the Westchester Polo Club of Newport for the best of three games. In the inaugural series American rules were to govern, but in subsequent challenges the rules of the country holding the trophy were to prevail. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., W. K. Thorne, A. Belmont and Foxhall P. Keene represented the Westchester Club. The Hurlingham team won in two games and the cup has ever since adorned its sideboard.

Fourteen years passed before there was another match for the cup. Foxhall P. Keene, W. and L. McCreery and F. J. Mackey challenged in 1900 on their own hook. Only one match was played, the English team—John Watson, Capt. J. G. Beresford, F. M. Fraake and W. S. Buckmaster—winning by 8 goals to 2. In 1902 a team representing the American Polo Association made a good fight for the trophy. Foxhall P. Keene was captain and the four others who played in one or more of the three matches were J. F. Cowdin, R. L. Agassiz and the two Waterburys.

G. A. Miller was unable to play in the first match and the Americans beat the English team, C. Nickalls, P. W. Nickalls, W. S. Buckmaster and C. D. Miller, by 2 goals to 1. The second match was won by the Hurlingham quartette, C. P. Nickalls, F. M. Fraake, G. A. Miller and W. S. Buckmaster, 6 goals to 1. In the third match F. W. Nickalls played instead of Fraake, and the Americans were beaten by 7 goals to 1.

In this country the polo players have been active throughout the winter in South Carolina, Florida, New Orleans and in southern California. An English team and a team from Philadelphia gave an unusual interest to the games at the Country Club, although the home players made the best showing. The summer season of tournaments is now impending and the footpads of the ponies are resounding in practice matches at all the country clubs. Another sign is that the dealers are on from Texas, Montana and Wyoming with their strings of ponies. They will follow the players from field to field until all the ponies are sold. The ponies each season seem a handier lot, and as prices do not advance materially there is little excuse for a clubman not having a choice of reliable mounts.

The first tournament will be at the Country Club of Westchester May 17 to 22. It is an annual affair, the purpose being individual prizes to be won outright. The Meadow Brook second team—J. S. Phipps, Howard Phipps, H. C. Phipps and Paul J. Rainey—won the tournament last season by defeating in succession the teams from Squadron A and the Country Club. The field is good, always firm turf that is safe for galloping.

It is most picturesque in location, being on the shores of the Sound, and the players usually come to the games on their steam yachts. They dress for the game on the yacht and after landing they readily jump on a pony and to begin hitting at the ball. After the Country Club tournament the next date will be at Van Cortlandt Park, May 24 to 28, under the auspices of Squadron A Polo Club. It is the first time that the mounted militia have claimed an early date for their polo tournament and it is thought the entry will be larger than in the fall.

There are thirty-one clubs now listed with the Polo Association, not including the Army Club of West Point that represents about two hundred players in the service. There will be no lack of attractions for them in the tournament way. Besides the two mentioned there have been dates allotted to fourteen tournaments in this order:
